Coop. Entre Ríos

Washed | Organic

Cooperativa Entre Ríos is a story of resilience and growth, marked by a key partnership with Los Volcanes Coffee. Founded in 2009 in the San Marcos region, the farmers formed a cooperative after the founder's death to continue their shared vision. Initially, they joined other cooperatives but split off in 2018 due to corruption cases within these groups, becoming independent with a focus on transparency, integrity, and high-quality coffee production. A turning point came with the partnership with Los Volcanes, which, as their exclusive buyer, brought stability and growth. By 2019, they were regularly selling two containers and securing their sustainable future.
